S. RES. 535

Whereas in 2005, a small group of American Legion Riders in Kansas calling themselves the "Patriot Guard" began a movement to shield the families and friends of fallen service members from interruptions by protesters appearing at military funerals;

Whereas individuals from Colorado, Oklahoma, and Texas later brought together diverse groups of motorcycle organizations across the country who rode to honor fallen service members, forming an organization known as the "Patriot Guard Riders";

Whereas the Patriot Guard Riders have since grown into a nationwide network, including both veterans and nonveterans and riders and nonriders, and is open to anyone who shares a respect for service members who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the Nation;

Whereas Patriot Guard Riders attend military funerals to show respect for fallen service members and to shield mourning family members and friends of the deceased from protesters who interrupt, or threaten to interrupt, the dignity of the event;

Whereas across the Nation, Patriot Guard Riders volunteer their time to come to the aid of military families in need, so as to allow the memories of the deceased service member to be remembered with honor and dignity;

Whereas regardless of one's opinion of the Nation's military commitments, the families, friends, and communities of the Nation's fallen soldiers deserve a peaceful time of mourning and should not be harassed and caused further suffering at a funeral;

Whereas Patriot Guard Riders appear at a funeral only at the invitation of the fallen soldier's family and participate in a non-violent, legal manner; and

Whereas the members of the Nation's Armed Forces willingly risk their lives to protect the American way of life and the freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate expresses its deepest appreciation to the Patriot Guard Riders who—

(1) attend military funerals across the country to show respect for fallen members of the Armed Forces and, when needed, shield mourning family members and friends of the deceased from protesters who interrupt, or threaten to interrupt, the dignity of a funeral; and

(2) in so doing, help to preserve the memory and honor of the Nation's fallen heroes.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, today has been a busy and productive day in the Senate—quite a historic day in many ways. We passed the Voting Rights Act, significant legislation on which we had very good debate and discussion over the course of the day. It is a bill that has been passed by the House of Representatives last week and was passed through our Judiciary Committee yesterday, came to the floor today, and passed a few moments ago.

We confirmed four of the President's judicial nominations and about an hour ago we passed the Adam Walsh bill, a bill that establishes a national sex offender registry that toughens penalties for crimes against children that directly, and in a tough fashion, combats Internet predators and child pornography and child exploitation, that prevents abuse. I mentioned in my remarks a few moments ago, four children die as a result of child abuse every day, and although a lot of States do have registries, this information is not shared with other States.

I am delighted we were able to create this national child abuse registry which, indeed, will make such a difference in people's lives.

As I mentioned earlier, also, we will not have any votes during tomorrow's session. We are working on some further agreements for tomorrow's session, and on Friday I will have an update as to the schedule for Monday and Tuesday.

MEASURE READ THE FIRST TIME—S. 3711

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I understand there is a bill at the desk. I ask for its first reading.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 3711) to enhance the energy independence and security of the United States by providing for exploration, development and production activities for mineral resources in the Gulf of Mexico, and for other purposes.

Mr. FRIST. I now ask for a second reading and in order to place the bill on the calendar under the provisions of rule XIV, I object to my own request.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard. The bill will receive its second reading on the next legislative day.
